

Join 600 of your development colleagues on WiD's LinkedIn group!

Empowering
Women in Development
New York

Did you miss?

- Guest experts Lesley Snyder providing specific advice on how to manage social media in the real world, Kim Hawkins on engaging your board in fundraising, Laurie Krotman on effective special events, and Diane Shea on hiring the right person
- Free resources: Recommended blogs, professional career management advice, specialized webinars
- Dev news: Non-profits use online discount sites like Groupon, effectiveness of NFP leaders with non-NFP backgrounds, reports on WiD events
- Advice from colleagues on: Starting a junior board, establishing a new dev office, choosing donor soft-ware, starting a monthly contribution program, etc.

Open to non-WiD members to encourage lots of exchange and to increase WiD's impact

www.linkedin.com

To Join WiD's LinkedIn Group

If you are already on LinkedIn: Set the search box in the upper right hand corner of the screen to "Groups" and enter "Women in Development New York" (You need the "New York").

If you are not on LinkedIn yet: You can register on LinkedIn and then join the group immediately. After registration, you can decide to fill out your profile later but participate in the discussions on the WiD LinkedIn Group immediately by following the search box instructions above.